Re: Special Policemen

Dear Mr. Dulles:

A letter of March 11 from your Director of Security requested on your behalf a delegation of authority from this agency regarding appointment of special policemen for properties occupied by your agency in the District of Columbia.

It is believed that making such a delegation will promote the national security. Accordingly, there is enclosed a suitable delegation of authority. The original has been forwarded to the Federal Register for publication.

Cordially yours,

Al E. Snyder
Assistant Administrator
